

LUCINA KINGSLEY, LATE WIDOW OF CAPTAIN N. ELTON.

MARCH 5, 1840.

Read, and laid on the table.

Mr. C. MORRIS, from the Committee on Invalid Pensions, submitted the following

REPORT :

The Committee on Invalid Pensions, to whom was referred the petition of Lucina Kingsley, report :

The petitioner sets forth that she is the late widow of Captain N. Elton, of New York militia, during the late war ; that the said Elton entered the service in 1814, and marched to Sackett's Harbor, where, in consequence of his services and duties, he was taken sick, and died at home on the 7th of December, 1814, after having been discharged, and three weeks after having reached home. It is satisfactorily proven that the petitioner was the wife of the said Elton, as are the principal facts stated by her, and by a number of respectable individuals.

The act of the 16th April, 1816, granting pensions to widows and orphans, provides, that when any officer or private soldier of the militia, &c., shall have died while in the service of the United States, during the late war, or in returning to his residence, or died at any time thereafter in consequence of wounds received while in the service, &c., such widow, &c., shall be entitled to receive half the monthly pay to which the deceased was entitled.

The committee are of opinion that the petitioner is not entitled to relief.

Blair & Rives, printers.

LUCINA KINGSLEY, LATE WIDOW OF CAPTAIN N. ELTON.

MARCH 5, 1840.
Read, and laid on the table.

Mr. C. Morris, from the Committee on Invalid Pensions, submitted the following

REPORT:

The Committee on Invalid Pensions, to whom was referred the petition of Lucina Kingsley, report:

The petitioner sets forth that she is the late widow of Captain N. Elton, of New York militia, during the late war; that the said Elton entered the service in 1814, and marched to Blackett's Harbor, where, in consequence of his services and duties, he was taken sick, and died at home on the 7th of December, 1814, after having been discharged, and three weeks after having reached home. It is satisfactorily proven that the petitioner was the wife of the said Elton, as are the principal facts stated by her, and by a number of respectable individuals.

The act of the 16th April, 1816, granting pensions to widows and orphans, provides that when any officer or private soldier of the militia, &c., shall have died while in the service of the United States, during the late war, or in returning to his residence, or died at any time thereafter in consequence of wounds received while in the service, &c., such widow, &c., shall be entitled to receive half the monthly pay to which the deceased was entitled.

The committee are of opinion that the petitioner is not entitled to relief.

ELTON RIVER, private